Part B for December 1947

SUBJECT

Grant of arbitrary pension of Rs 300/- p.m to L Mr P.G Vadivadanandam Pillai Assistant Secretary on the personal staff of His Highness

The Palace Office
Mysore, 12th October 1947.

Most Respectfully Submitted

I beg to state that I have so far served the Palace for 30 years. My total period of service amounts to 36 years. My age at present is 62 years, and, owing to failing health, I find I am unable to continue to discharge my duties efficiently. I therefore pray that I may kindly be granted three months' Privilege Leave from 1st November 1947 and may be permitted to retire at the end of this period.

I enclose herewith a note giving a short account of my services. I need hardly say that throughout the period during which I have had the privilege of serving the Palace, I have sought at all times to discharge my duties conscientiously and loyally and the various reports on my work will show that my services ~~will~~ have been greatly appreciated by all my superior officers. In view of this, I beg to request that Government will be pleased to grant me an arbitrary pension of Rs 300/- in accordance with Section 48 M.S.R. Although I shall have drawn a pay of Rs 600/- for only one year and seven months on the date of my retirement I may be permitted to point out that I have been drawing a Duty Allowance of Rs 75/- for the past five years. In view of this and of the special nature of my work I pray that the deficiency of one year and five months in the period required for earning full pension may kindly be condoned as a special case and that I may be given the privilege of reckoning my present pay for pension

I beg to express my profound sense of gratitude for the sympathy and encouragement shown to me throughout the period of my service on the Personal Staff of His Highness and request you ~~to~~ kindly to submit to our Gracious Sovereign my humble duty and sense of abiding loyalty.

I have the honour to be
Sir
Your most obedient servant

P.G.Sachedanandam Pillai.

Entered Government service in 1911 in the District & Sessions Court, Bangalore. Within a year of his service he won the golden opinion of his superior who to his surprise recommended his appointment as an Assistant Commissioner in the following terms

" P.G.Sachedanandam Pillai is a very intelligent and capable mathematical graduate and belonging to a very respectable family, deserves to be nominated to the Civil Service".

It ought to be Science.)

This opinion of the District Judge was endorsed by the following very high officers:

i) Rajasevaparayana Mr.B.Srinivasa Iyengar B.A., B.L.

ii) Rajamanthrapravina, Dewan Bahadur J.S.Chakravarthi,M.A.

During the following year, he was given a commission to audit the accounts of a very big European concern maintained, as Liquidators, by Messrs Fraser & Ross, Chartered Accountants, Madras---- his aggregate remuneration being Rs 640/- It is believed that this is a singular instance offering no parallel in the initial career of any ~~of the~~ Non government official. In connection with the appointment of Mr. D.C.Subbarayappa as Probationary Asst.Commissioner in January ~~1918~~ 1918, he was specially selected and drafted to the Private Secretary's Office from the Govt. Secretariat. In April 1923, he was proposed by the late Mr. K. Chandy (then Revenue Commissioner) to be posted as Amildar to Chittaldrug, which appointment he did not accept. Within the next few months, he was appointed as Manager of the Palace Office. Had he been permitted to remain in the Palace service with his appointment as Amildar seconded, a privilege shown to three others in later years- he would have had the opportunity of rising high in service, as it was the case with his juniors.

It is now over five years since he was appointed as Assistant Secretary and he has been endeavouring to discharge his duties to the best of his abilities

The recognition of ~~the~~ services by the Private Secretary under whom he has the privilege of serving for nearly 30 years is recorded below:

> "He can very well claim to a generous treatment. His notes on difficult and complicated subjects show a thorough grasp of details" (27-1-1923)

Thanked and acknowledged
